66th Annual Polish American Medical Society (PAMS) Physicians' Ball Coming February 6th

PAMS Strength Continues to Build Funds for Education and Charitable Efforts

(Chicago, IL) - The 66th Annual Polish American Medical Society Physicians' Ball will be held on February 6th, 2016 at Chicago's exciting Ritz Carlton Hotel (160 E. Pearson). The Polish American Medical Society (PAMS) is one of the largest Polish-American organizations with over 400 members and supporters of the medical community. Each year the ball is dedicated to funding medical scholarships and other noteworthy causes within the Polish community. This year, the Paderewski Symphony Orchestra will benefit. 2016 also marks the 70th anniversary of the Polish American Medical Society, which has aided in various medical efforts and assisted medical newcomers. Over the years, PAMS has supported Polish Museum of America, Polish-American Association, Amber Coalition, Gift from the Heart Foundation, The Kosciuszko Foundation, Polish Jesuits, Polish Scouting Organization of Illinois; to name a few.

Guest of Honor is award-winning journalist, Alex Storozynski. He is currently Chairman of the Board of the Kosciuszko Foundation (KF). Previously, he was President and Executive Director of the KF. The Foundation highly promotes closer ties between Poland and the United States through educational, scientific and cultural exchanges.

His book The Peasant Prince: Thaddeus Kosciuszko and the Era of Revolution won many awards and honors, including the Templar Military History Award. It has also received excellent reviews from Newsweek, The Wall Street Journal and New York Observer. Additionally, PAMS members has honored over 21 individuals for their achievements in the medical field. This year's ball will feature, Professor. Jaroslaw Maciejewski, Chairman of Hematology and Oncology at The Cleveland Clinic; Professor George Krol, Department of Radiology at Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center, New York, New York; Professor Andrzej Matyja, Chairman of Generalm Gastrointestinal and Oncologic Surgery at Jagiellonian University Medical College and President of the Regional Medical Council in Cracow; Professor Malgorzata Szczerbo-Trojanowska, Chairman of Radiology at the Medical University in Lublin; and Professor Andrzej Jakubowiak, Director of the Myeloma Program at The University of Chicago.

Guests of the ball will enjoy a delectable dinner, dancing and enticing auction items. Very special thanks to President of PAMS; Kornelia Krol, MD and FACOG and it's active members to making this event possible.
